

Further Particulars

1. The Institute

The Institute's aim is to promote and facilitate high-quality research in modern languages, making it available to the widest possible audience both inside and outside the academic community. The Institute's main areas of activity are:

- Events (conferences, workshops, lectures, readings, and seminars)
- Publications (e.g. imlr books, the Germanic Studies series, Bithell Series of Dissertations, Bithell Memorial Lectures, Miller Memorial Lectures, Journal of Romance Studies)
- Research collaborations and networks
- Research training and the supervision of research students
- Post-doctoral research and Visiting Fellowships

2. The Sylvia Naish Fellowships/Scholarships

Endowed by a generous bequest from the estate of Sylvia Naish, up to two Visiting Fellowships or Scholarships are available in 2017-2018 for research into any area of German language and literature at the Institute and its Germanic Studies Library and/or Archives. The awards are designed to assist scholars in the early stages of their careers, to provide a contribution to temporary living expenses in London, or enable those in employment to take leave to further their studies. The Fellowship/Scholarship should not be held concurrently with another fellowship or award.

Sylvia Naish Research Fellowships provide funding of up to £2,000, and are open to post-doctoral applicants domiciled in the UK or in one of the German-speaking countries, who wish to spend a minimum of one month at the Institute. Applicants should have a strong publications record and be at the beginning of their academic career.

Sylvia Naish Scholarships provide funding of up to £2,000, and are available to research students in their second or third year who are registered at a university in the UK or in one of the German-speaking countries, and wish to spend a minimum of one month at the Institute.

3. Tenure

Fellowships/Scholarships are tenable for the period stated between 1 September 2017 and 30 June 2018.

Extensions to the original period of the Fellowship may be possible, but are subject to the same terms and will not attract any additional financial support beyond the amount originally offered.

4. What We Offer

The Institute can offer shared office accommodation with wifi, internet/email, photocopying/ printing facilities, and access to the Institute's Germanic Studies Library, the Senate House Library, and the libraries of the other Institutes that make up the School of Advanced Study (Advanced Legal Studies, Classical Studies, Commonwealth Studies, Historical Research, Latin-American Studies, and the Warburg Institute). Fellows and Scholars are offered free access to the Institute's events, and are expected to participate as much as possible in the intellectual life of the Institute.

5. What Visiting Fellows/Scholars Do

Fellows/Scholars contribute to and enhance the scholarly activity of the Institute and the School of Advanced Study. In addition to presenting current work as a seminar or as part of a larger conference or workshop, Fellows/Scholars are invited to organise an event either during or resulting from their stay, or otherwise contribute to the work of the Institute. Fellows/Scholars are also invited to place a recent, normally unpublished, piece of work in our open-access repository, SAS-Space, and to contribute to the IMLR blog, Living Languages. Publications resulting from research conducted during the tenure of the Fellowship must acknowledge the Institute and, where appropriate, a copy should be deposited in the Germanic Studies Library or with the Institute Director. At the conclusion of their stay, Fellows/Scholars are required to write a short report on the progress made in their research.

6. Financial Arrangements

The awards made are intended to contribute to the costs of accommodation during the Fellow's/Scholar's stay in London. Payment is made direct to the award holder's bank account at the beginning of the tenure of the Fellowship. Should the Fellow/Scholar for any reason not take up the Fellowship/Scholarship, the funding must be immediately returned.

7. Accommodation

Living accommodation is not provided and Fellows/Scholars should make their own arrangements. A list of hotels and guest houses is on our website, and the University of London Accommodation office may also be able to assist. We may also be able to put award holders in touch with people offering private accommodation.

8. Visas

If coming from outside the UK, the UK Visas and Immigration Office website is useful to check whether you will need to apply for a visa to cover the period of your Fellowship.

9. Method of Application

Applicants should submit the application form by the closing date stated below together with:

- a statement detailing your research project and intended outputs (no longer than 1,500 words)
- a statement outlining the ways in which you would contribute to the work of the Institute (500 words)
- a curriculum vitae (no longer than 2 pp)
- a publications list (not more than 2 pp)

Applicants must also arrange for two academic references specific to the Fellowship/Scholarship application to be sent by the closing date, direct from the referee, to jane.lewin@sas.ac.uk.

The preferred method of submission is by email; please ensure that the subject line of the email reads 'Naish Visiting Fellowship/Scholarship Application 2017-18' and is followed by your family name.

All applicants are notified of the result of the competition following consideration by the relevant committee at the IMLR. Applicants are not called for interview.

10. Closing Date

The closing date for receipt of applications and references is 31 March 2017.
